Are You Ridin' Derby?

Edmonton's Original Flat Track Roller Derby Team: The Oil City Derby Girls!

We're the Real deal: The Oil City Derby Girls are genuine competitive Roller girls.

2006, OCDG played the Rocky Mountain Roller girls all the way from Denver, Colorado, for the first International Flat Track Roller Derby bout.

2007, as the growth of Roller Derby continues, OCDG organized the Fall Brawl, which brought four leagues together in one game. OCDG also played Vancouver's Terminal City Roller girls, not to mention many home team games.

2008, three OCDG members travelled to Great Britain with Team Canada and competed in the first Intercontinental Roller Derby games. And with the establishment of more teams throughout Canada, travel became possible.

2009, we had an exciting season bringing in a team from Los Angeles "LA Derby Dolls" and teams from British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Washington, and our close Red Deer derby sisters.

2010, our season is stacked with amazing bouts both at home and abroad with Red Deer, Saskatoon, and Anchorage Alaska's Rage City, and a men's invitational bout as well! In September we will challenge Calgary's Hellion Rebellion reigning champions to win the coveted "Wild Rose Cup". And we will also travel to the Spud Town Knockdown in Boise, Idaho which will be broadcast live on DNN - The Derby News Network!
